

Classroom Matrix- Mr. Millers

	Entering Classroom	Instructional Time	Working Independently	Group Work	When You Are Finished Working	Exiting Classroom
Respect	-Greet Mr. Millers and classmates with good manners. -Sit quietly and wait for instruction	-Stay actively engaged during lessons. -Listen to Mr. Millers' instruction.	-Keep your hands and feet to yourself. -Listen while others are speaking.	-Listen to all members of the group. -Stay positive and be kind.	-Use a quiet voice. -Do not distract classmates that are still working.	-Be polite and allow other students the opportunity to exit.
Responsibility	-Bring in all your items you will need in class. -Sharpen your pencils and take out homework.	-Follow along with reading, notes, and activities. -Ask questions to clarify when you are having trouble.	-Do your best. -Make sure others around you can work independently without a distraction. -Solve answers with your own work.	- Split up work evenly for all members. -Ask for help or clarification and tasks.	-Read from your SSR book. -Complete assigned homework.	-Push in chairs and clean off desk when the bell rings. -Help classmates when appropriate.
Integrity	-Carefully remove your chair from your desk. -Be prepared at the start of class.	- Only one person speaks at a time during lesson.	-Use your materials the way they were intended.	-Use your materials the way they were intended.	-Keep your hands and feet to yourself.	-Walk and be aware of other students around you when exiting the room.